

Catholic Schools Track (CS)

This series of workshops is aimed at assisting elementary, middle, and high school teachers, administrators, and pastoral staff in their knowledge of and ability to pass on the Catholic faith to students and their families. This track serves the real-world needs of teachers in a three-fold manner by: 1) Addressing practical, pastoral, and methodologies issues stemming from modern family and culture contexts; 2) Assessing ways to handle common doubts and questions of young people; and 3) Exploring how a classroom experience can be not only mind-growing, but soul-forming, at the heart of the mission of the Church. Workshops will introduce the concept of incarnational dynamism in classroom teaching. This consists in drawing students to the Person of Christ, who is the content of all catechesis, through the use of contemporary and ancient sacred art, music, literature, film, and age-appropriate activities. The aim in this track is to form teachers to effectively witness to the Catholic faith in a manner that will authentically engage students and foster genuine evangelization.

Forming those who form others.
